

Jean Marc Deplaix

Jean Marc Deplaix (73 years of age), expert for the United Nations and the European Commission, has carried out numerous studies also for the French transport Ministry, particularly on the issues of ports, logistics and containers. He has been UNESCAP expert in charge of Promotion of Inland Water Transport in Asia from 1980 to 1987. He is Professor of IWT at the Paris Ecole Supérieure des Transports since 1996. He is representative of France at one of the commissions of the International Association of Navigation (PIANC), a member PIANC – Co-COM and one of the authors of WG141 Report on Dimensions of Inland waterways.